Our original soundtrack album (on cassette, 1992) featured ten original songs, nine written and recorded for this project by Marc Waszkiewicz and Lea Jones. The album was recorded on an 8 channel TASCAM reel to reel, featuring vintage instruments and gear (we did opt for a Yamaha drum machine, but Marc programmed the hell out of that thing)... The original release went nowhere. The original soundtrack was re-released prior to the 25th Anniversary of the WALL (2007), and we were honored to play selections from the soundtrack on the National Mall as part of that anniversary and at the invitation of Vietnam Veterans of America. Positive reviews followed from both the VVA and WaPo. We were also pleased to have one of our tunes included on a Bear Family compilation, "Next Stop Is Vietnam."

In 2013, we digitized the original 8-channel master tapes. During this time, we cleaned up hundreds of Marc's photos, prepping for film-making, and concluded that publishing 1000 Yard Stare: THE PHOTOBOOK would make sense. Boy, did it! Our self-published version was immediately snapped up by Stackpole Books, and we were able to turn our attention to producing the film, Vietnam: An Inner View, Marc's life work. The film is finished, and the soundtrack CD will soon be added to Stackpole's deliveries of the 1000 Yard Stare.

The tracks on this 2018 soundtrack were re-mixed and re-mastered digitally at The Golden Lab. And we now have real drums! The soundtrack includes a number of cues Marc Waszkiewicz composed for other Vietnam documentaries. It also features three Lea Jones acoustic originals that just happen to supplement and tie in nicely with the rest of the soundtrack. The short list below gives SONG TITLES, RUNTIME, and STYLE (plus "Marine Language" warnings on a couple).

NOTE: Most of the songs open with short voiceover segments taken from the film. Recommended tracks are denoted with **.
